Articles of Incorporation of A Tax-Exempt
Pursuant to A.R.S. §10-3202
(Arizona Non-Profit Corporation)FILE NO. 110000551Article I
Name

The name of the corporation shall be: TENT OF MEETING MINISTRIES

Articles II
Purpose

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is to establish and operate a non-denominational church.

Article III
Character of Affairs

The character of affairs of the corporation will be:

To honor and advance the kingdom of God throughout the United States and around the world (via missionary efforts) through the establishment of Christian faith-based "home churches." Homes will be transformed into places of worship, where the Holy Spirit of God has free reign to operate through His people to inspire a song, a word of instruction, a revelation, a tongue or an interpretation; and create avenues necessary to support activities to fulfill the Great Commission of Jesus Christ (as set forth in Matthew 28:19-20) to preach the gospel to all the world. We expect home churches to develop in all communities within the United States and potentially throughout the world.

This is expected to be accomplished by (but not limited to):

1. establishing and overseeing Christian faith-based "home churches" as places of worship where the apostolic, prophetic, evangelistic, pastoral, and teaching gifts (as well as gifts of the Holy Spirit) would have ability to function, grow and thrive into offices the Lord can use for the advancement of His Kingdom; and by striving to consistently live by and promote Kingdom responsibilities set forth in the book of Matthew 5, 6, and 7.
2. conducting the work of evangelism worldwide (via training and teaching from a Christian perspective) through the work of the cross, first in denying ourselves and then being used in our weakness to bring others to salvation through the Christian belief.
3. licensing, ordaining, and overseeing ministers of the gospel by raising up workmen, (without regard to race, gender or ethnicity), to prepare the people of God to receive their Savior. This will be accomplished by preaching, teaching and counseling and sending/supporting workers who serve other cultures and countries.
4. ministering to members and others, as the church is able, by meeting the needs of the poor and under-served in our communities; striving to love and do good to all people, especially fellow believers, but also to all those we encounter. "Home churches" allow for close and caring relationships, where no one goes through trials alone, but can count on one other to help meet the need through spiritual and physical means.

5. keeping the overhead costs of establishing and maintaining churches under control by use of member homes for weekly services and fellowship; allowing more donated funds to be available for preaching the gospel and meeting physical needs of members and those in the community.

Article IV

No part of the net earning of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 2. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements,) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on: (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or: (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the United States Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Laws).

Article V

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all its assets exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such a manner, or to such organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purpose as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Laws) as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Superior Court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purpose or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purpose.

Article VI

The power of indemnification under the Arizona Revised Statutes shall not be denied or limited by the bylaws.

Article VII
