NO. CV 2014-014652
COMPLAINT

(Negligence)

24 Plaintiff Lillian Clark, a married woman, by and through her attorneys 25 undersigned, for her Complaint against Defendants, alleges as follows:

26 1. Plaintiff currently resides in Maricopa County, Arizona and was a 27 resident of Maricopa County at all times material. The cause of action and 28 occurrence hereinafter alleged occurred in Maricopa County, Arizona.

2. Defendant JNJ Ventures, LLC (hereinafter "Defendant JNJ") is an

1 Arizona limited liability company and is and was at all times relevant hereto an 2 owner and operator of a restaurant and bar business known as Roadrunner 3 Restaurant and Saloon, located at 47801 N. Black Canyon Highway, New River, 4 Arizona. The cause of action hereinafter set forth occurred in Maricopa County, 5 Arizona.

6 3. Defendant Starr Property Holdings, LLC (hereinafter "Defendant
7 Starr Property") is an Arizona limited liability company and is and was at all times 8 relevant hereto an owner of the property known as Roadrunner Restaurant and 9 Saloon, located at 47801 N. Black Canyon Highway, New River, Arizona.

10 4. Defendant Mark Starr (hereinafter "Defendant Starr") is a resident of 11 Maricopa County and at all times relevant was an owner/operator of a restaurant 12 and bar business known as Roadrunner Restaurant and Saloon (hereinafter 13 "Roadrunner Restaurant") or property located at 47801 N. Black Canyon Highway, 14 New River, Arizona.

15 5. The Defendants were, at all times material, engaged in a joint 16 enterprise, aided and abetted, owed non-delegable duties for the conduct of and/or 17 were otherwise vicariously liable for the acts and omissions of K&B Restaurant 18 Ventures, L.L.C. and Cowboy Lifestyle Network, L.L.C.

19 6. Defendants Black Companies 1-10, White Corporations 1-10 and 20 Green Partnerships 1-10, and Does 1-10 are fictitious names of companies, 21 corporations, partnerships and/or individuals residing and/or doing business in 22 Maricopa County, Arizona, who or which caused an event to occur in Maricopa 23 County, Arizona, out of which Plaintiff's Complaint arises. At such time as their 24 true identities become known to Plaintiff, Plaintiff will seek leave of this Court to 25 amend her Complaint to reflect their true names.

26 7. This Court has jurisdiction over this action and the parties to this 27
28

1 action, venue is proper before this Court and the amount in controversy exceeds 2 the jurisdictional limits of this Court.

3 8. At all times material, Plaintiff was a paying customer and an invitee
4 upon the premises known as Roadrunner Restaurant and Saloon located at 47801
5 N. Black Canyon Highway, New River, Arizona.

6 9. The Defendants, and each of them, individually, by and through their 7 employees, servants, agents, ostensible agents, joint tortfeasors and/or 8 representatives, and jointly and severally caused or contributed to cause the events 9 giving rise to an incident and resulting injuries and damages to the Plaintiff.

10 10. On or about June 29, 2013, Plaintiff and her husband went for the first 11 time to the Roadrunner Restaurant and Saloon, for dinner and drinks at the 12 invitation of a friend. During and after dinner, the Plaintiff was served by 13 Defendants, agents, ostensible agents, servants, employees, joint tortfeasors and/or 14 representatives and consumed numerous sweet alcoholic drinks. After they arrived 15 at Roadrunner Restaurant, the Plaintiff and her husband learned that there would be 16 a competition that evening somehow involving bulls to win tickets to a Tim 17 McGraw concert. Initially believing the event would not involve live bulls, and 18 unable to obtain clear answers from Defendants' agents, ostensible agents, servants, 19 employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives, Plaintiff, who was in an 20 obviously intoxicated state, agreed to take part in the competition. She was led to 21 an outdoor ring on Defendants' premises, inside of which had been drawn two 22 circles in the dirt. She had not witnessed anything which had occurred in the ring 23 prior to her being brought to it, and never saw the live bull which was eventually 24 let loose in the ring as she and other participants took their places within one of the 25 two circles drawn in the ring.

26 11. The Plaintiff, either due to her intoxicated state or to the complete 27
28

1 lack of disclosure by the Defendants and/or their agents, ostensible agents, 2 servants, employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives of the ultra-hazardous 3 risks to which she would be exposed, was wholly unaware of what would occur 4 when she entered the ring at Roadrunner Restaurant. The purported goal of the 5 "Ring of Fire" event was for the participants to stand within one of the two rings, 6 somehow avoid being struck by an enormous, angry bull which repeatedly charged 7 at them, while remaining within the ring. The last person left within a ring would 8 win tickets to the Tim McGraw concert. In reality, the true goal for the Defendants 9 and/or their agents, ostensible agents, servants, employees, joint tortfeasors and/or 10 representatives was to provide entertainment to bar patrons at the substantial risk 11 of death or serious bodily injury to unwitting, generally intoxicated participants in 12 the event.
13

14 12. Shortly after Defendants and/or their agents, ostensible agents, 15 servants, employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives released the bull into 16 the ring, it charged and struck the Plaintiff, throwing her forward, knocking her to 17 the ground and causing her significant injuries.

18 13. On June 29, 2013, while an invitee on the premises of Defendant 19 Roadrunner and while continuing to be served alcoholic beverages, Plaintiff's 20 intoxication would have been obvious Defendants and/or their agents, ostensible 21 agents, servants, employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives.

22 14. Defendants and/or their agents, ostensible agents, servants, 23 employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives, provided, served and sold 24 spirituous liquor to Plaintiff within the hours preceding the incident in the bull ring 25 set forth in Paragraphs 10 through 13 hereof. Defendants and/or their agents, 26 ostensible agents, servants, employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives, 27 allowed Plaintiff to participate in the unreasonably dangerous "Ring of Fire" bull 28

1 event while she was in an obviously intoxicated condition and such personnel, 2 representatives, agents and/or employees knew or should have known that, given 3 the quantity of alcoholic beverages served to Plaintiff, along with her demeanor, 4 she was intoxicated and at significant risk of injury while participating in an 5 already unreasonably dangerous and ultra-hazardous activity.

6         15. Defendants owed a duty of care to invitees on their premises 7 especially to those to whom Defendants and/or their agents, ostensible agents, 8 servants, employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives had served copious 9 amounts of alcoholic beverages. Defendants and/or their agents, ostensible agents, 10 servants, employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives had actual and/or 11 constructive notice that Plaintiff was intoxicated while at the Roadrunner 12 Restaurant premises at the time they allowed her to participate in the subject "Ring 13 of Fire" event, in breach of their duties or reasonable care owed to the Plaintiff.

14         16. The unreasonably dangerous "Ring of Fire" event was ultra-hazardous 15 to its participants. Defendants and/or their agents, ostensible agents, servants, 16 employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives negligently failed to disclose the 17 event's ultra-hazardous nature to Plaintiff and failed to warn or advise her of the 18 dangers of participating in the event and/or the very real risk of serious personal 19 injury or death to participants.

20         17. Defendants' violation of statute, negligence, recklessness and/or 21 intentional acts in selling or providing sufficient quantities of spirituous liquor to 22 Plaintiff to render her intoxicated, and allowing her to participate in the subject 23 "Ring of Fire" event while in her state of obvious intoxication, and without 24 reasonable disclosure and/or warning, was a proximate cause of the serious injuries 25 and damaged sustained by the Plaintiff. Defendants and/or their agents, ostensible 26 agents, servants, employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives served, sold or 27
28

1 furnished spirituous liquor to Plaintiff in violation of A.R.S. 4-244(14) and 4-311, 2 as well as other Arizona law(s) and its common law duties, and is liable to Plaintiff 3 as a consequence of the same.

4 18. Defendants and/or their agents, ostensible agents, servants,
5 employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives were negligent, grossly 6 negligent, reckless, and/or acted intentionally in permitting, sponsoring, 7 organizing, coordinating, and/or otherwise participating in the operation of the 8 subject "Ring of Fire" event without banning those who had consumed alcoholic 9 beverages from participating, and/or for allowing Plaintiff in her obvious state of 10 intoxication, to participate in the "Ring of Fire" event, and the Defendants' tortious 11 conduct was a proximate cause of the serious injuries and damages sustained by 12 the Plaintiff.
13

14 19. Defendants and/or their agents, ostensible agents, servants, 15 employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives were the owners of the subject 16 premises and owed a non-delegable duty to keep its premises in a reasonably safe 17 condition for the foreseeable uses of its invitees, and at all times material hereto
18 Defendants owed such non-delegable duties to Plaintiff, which non-delegable 19 duties were breached by Defendants and/or their agents, ostensible agents, 20 servants, employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives and/or others for 21 whom Defendants are legally responsible.
22

23 20. Defendants and/or their agents, ostensible agents, servants, 24 employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives, as a result of the breach of non-25 delegable duties owed to Plaintiff, caused or contributed to cause the events giving 26 rise to the injuries suffered by Plaintiff.

27 21. Defendants and/or their agents, ostensible agents, servants, 28 employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives failed to maintain the premises

1 in a reasonably safe condition for their invitees and also negligently failed to 2 inform and/or disclose the risks and circumstances of the activity and/or 3 warn/advise Plaintiff of the unreasonably hazardous event, which caused Plaintiff's 4 injuries and damages.

5         22. Defendants and/or their agents, ostensible agents, servants,
6 employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives and K&B Restaurant Ventures, 7 L.L.C. and Cowboy Lifestyle Network, L.L.C. maintained a mutual agency based 8 on their agreement, common purpose, community of interest and equal right to 9 control the unreasonably dangerous bull ring "contest" and Defendants are jointly 10 and severally liable with each other, and with K&B Restaurant Ventures, L.L.C.
11 and Cowboy Lifestyle Network, L.L.C. for injuries caused to Plaintiff as joint 12 venturers. The Defendants undertook to promote and expose unwitting invitees to 13 an ultra-hazardous condition knowing it had a high likelihood of causing injury to 14 participants. Defendants and/or their agents, ostensible agents, servants, 15 employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives, despite knowledge of the 16 tortious nature of their activity nevertheless gave substantial assistance and/or 17 encouragement to one another and Defendants are jointly and severally liable with 18 K&B Restaurant Ventures, L.L.C. and Cowboy Lifestyle Network, L.L.C. for 19 Plaintiff's injuries as aiders and abettors.
20

21         23. As a result of the negligence, gross negligence, recklessness and/or 22 other tortious conduct on the part of Defendants, and/or their agents, ostensible 23 agents, servants, employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives, Plaintiff was 24 seriously and permanently injured on June 29, 2013.

25         24. The activity engaged in by the Defendants was abnormally dangerous 26 in light of the location, circumstances and known hazards of such activities.
27 Defendants and/or their agents, ostensible agents, servants, employees, joint 28

1 tortfeasors and/or representatives nonetheless continued their operation and 2 exposed invitees including Plaintiff to these ultra-hazardous risks and Defendants 3 are strictly liable for Plaintiff's injuries.

4 25. As a direct and proximate result of the above-described negligence, 5 gross negligence, carelessness, recklessness and other fault of the Defendants, 6 Plaintiff was injured and received hospital care, and other medical attention, and 7 may require additional care and treatment in the future for her injuries.

8 26. As a further direct and proximate result of Defendants' carelessness, 9 negligence, gross negligence, recklessness and other fault, Plaintiff sustained 10 severe injuries. These injuries have caused Plaintiff physical and mental pain and 11 suffering which impaired her ability to perform everyday tasks, all to her damage 12 in an amount to be proven at trial.

13 27. Plaintiff has sustained pain, discomfort, annoyance, mental and 14 emotional distress and anxiety, anguish, inconvenience as well as the loss of 15 enjoyment of life's activities as a result of the Defendants' negligence, carelessness 16 and other fault, and will continue to experience such disabilities for an indefinite 17 period in the future. The exact amount of these damages will be proven at trial.

18 28. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence, gross negligence, 19 carelessness, recklessness and other fault of Defendants, Plaintiff has been forced 20 to incur medical expenses and may be forced to incur medical expenses in the 21 future, in amounts to be determined.

22 29. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence, gross negligence, 23 carelessness, recklessness and other fault of Defendants, Plaintiff has lost income 24 and may continue to lose income as a result of her injuries, the full nature and 25 extent of which are unknown but will be proven at trial.

26 30. The conduct of the Defendants and/or their agents, ostensible agents, 27
28

1 servants, employees, joint tortfeasors and/or representatives as alleged herein was 2 beyond reckless and evidences the Defendants' conscious disregard of the 3 substantial risk of injury and damage to the Plaintiff, and was the product of an evil 4 and malignant mind, entitling Plaintiff to an award of punitive damages against 5 Defendants.

6 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, and each of 7 them, jointly and severally, as follows:

- 8 1. For such sums as are fair and reasonable for Plaintiff's injuries, 9 including general damages for pain, discomfort, loss of enjoyment of 10 life, mental and emotional distress and anxiety, anguish, 11 inconvenience and permanent injury and economic damages suffered 12 by Plaintiff.
- 13 2. For such sums as will fairly and reasonably compensate the Plaintiff 14 for medical bills and expenses and other special damages incurred and 15 reasonably likely to be incurred in the future.
- 16 3. For punitive and/or exemplary damages as allowed by law.
- 17 4. For Plaintiff's costs of court herein incurred, expended and accruing; 18 and
- 19 5. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and 20 proper.
