$ 3,500 is the total amount owed me by defendant because:

Summary:

Wiggles and Wags, LLC (hereafter "Defendant") markets itself as a "Pet Resort." On April 14, 2016, I (Plaintiff) left my dog Tex under the care and supervision of Defendant while my girlfriend and I went on vacation. I picked up Tex on April 25, 2016. My girlfriend and I immediately noticed a change in his behavior. Tex was lethargic and within a day he had stopped eating. Shortly afterward, he vomited two dog toys. We had never seen these toys before. When Tex continued to display signs of illness and did not appear to recover, we took him to the vet. Ultimately, it was determined that Tex needed surgery. The vet removed a third toy from his small intestine and in the process, a portion of the small intestine itself. The toy that was removed was identical to one of the toys that Tex had previously vomited. The total expense of treatment and surgery was $3,458.65. Boarding expenses totaled $385.00.

Plaintiff requests the court enter judgment in his favor in the sum of $3,500.00.

Notice: If you are representing a business, please attach letter of authorization.

Maricopa County Justice Courts
NOTICE TO THE DEFENDANT:
A LAWSUIT HAS BEEN FILED AGAINST YOU IN JUSTICE COURTS

You have rights and responsibilities in this lawsuit. Read this notice carefully.

1. In a justice court lawsuit, individuals have a right to represent themselves, or they may hire an attorney to represent them. A family member or a friend may not represent someone in justice court unless the family member or friend is an attorney. A corporation has a right to be represented by an officer of the corporation, and a limited liability company ("LLC") may be represented by a managing member. A corporation or an LLC may also be represented by an attorney.

If you represent yourself, you have the responsibility to properly complete your court papers and to file them when they are due. The clerks and staff at the court are not allowed to give you legal advice. If you would like legal advice, you may ask the court for the name and phone number of a local lawyer referral service, the local bar association, or a legal aid organization.

2. You have a responsibility to follow the Justice Court Rules of Civil Procedure ("JCRC") that apply in your lawsuit. The rules are available in many public libraries, at the courthouse, and online at the Court Rules page of the Arizona Judicial Branch website, at <http://www.azcourts.gov/>, under the "AZ Supreme Court" tab.
3. A "plaintiff" is someone who files a lawsuit against a "defendant." You must file an answer or other response to the plaintiff's complaint in writing and within twenty (20) days from the date you were served with the summons and complaint (or thirty (30) days if you were served out-of-state.) If you do not file an answer within this time, the plaintiff may ask the court to enter a "default" and a "default judgment" against you. Your answer must state your defenses to the lawsuit. Answer forms are available at the courthouse, on the Maricopa County Justice Court website at <http://justicecourts.maricopa.gov/>, and on the Self-Service Center of the Arizona Judicial Branch website at <http://www.azcourts.gov/> under the "Public Services" tab. You may also prepare your answer on a plain sheet of paper, but your answer must include the court location, the case number and the names of the parties. You must provide to the plaintiff a copy of any document that you file with the court, including your answer.
4. You may bring a claim against the plaintiff if you have one. When you file your answer or written response with the court, you may also file your "counterclaim" against the plaintiff.
5. You must pay a filing fee to the court when you file your answer. If you cannot afford to pay a filing fee, you may apply to the court for a fee waiver or deferral, but you must still file your answer on time.
6. You may contact the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney and try to reach an agreement to settle the lawsuit. However, until an agreement is reached you must still file your answer and participate in the lawsuit. During the lawsuit, the court may require the parties to discuss settlement.
7. Within forty (40) days after your answer has been filed, you and the plaintiff are required to provide a disclosure statement to each other. The disclosure statement provides information about witnesses and exhibits that will be used in the lawsuit. A party may also learn more about the other side's case through discovery. Read the Justice Court Rules of Civil Procedure for more information about disclosure statements and discovery.
8. The court will notify you of all hearing dates and trial dates. You must appear at the time and place specified in each notice. If you fail to appear at a trial or a hearing, the court may enter a judgment against you. To assure that you receive these notices, you must keep the court informed, in writing, of your current address and telephone number until the lawsuit is over.
