WRIT OF GARNISHMENT AND SUMMONS (EARNINGS) (A.R.S. § 12-1598.04)

TO THE SHERIFF, CONSTABLE OR OTHER AUTHORIZED PROCESS SERVER IN MARICOPA COUNTY:

You are commanded to summon garnishee named above, who is believed to be in your county, to answer the following claims:

STATEMENTS OF THE JUDGMENT CREDITOR:

- 1. Judgment creditor was awarded a judgment against Nicole Amber Rowland, judgment debtor.
- The amount of the outstanding balance on the judgment or order, including accrued interest and allowable costs is $12,214.46. Interest accrues at the rate of 24.91% annually. The cost of serving the Writ of Garnishment will be shown on the Affidavit of Service and may be added to the Judgment.
- 3. Judgment creditor believes garnishee owes or will owe earnings to the judgment debtor in the next 60 days.
- 4. The names and address of all parties are listed above.

TO THE GARNISHEE:

YOU SHALL answer all of the following questions in writing, under oath, on a separate document. Your answer shall be filed with the Court Clerk within 10 business days after you are served with this Writ of Garnishment.

- 1. Have you identified the judgment debtor and if not, what steps were taken to do so and why were they unsuccessful?
- 2. Did you employ the judgment debtor on the date you received the Writ of Garnishment and Summons (Earnings)?
- 3. If not employed by you on the date, what was the last day on which you did employ the judgment debtor?
- 4. Will you owe earnings to the judgment debtor within the next 60 days of the date on which you received the Writ?
- 5. What will be the judgment debtor's next two paydays and what is the length of the judgment debtor's pay period (e.g. daily, weekly, bi-weekly, semi-monthly)?
- Is the judgment debtor already subject to an existing way assignment, garnishment or levy, and if so, what is the name, address and telephone number of the judgment creditor.

SUMMONS

A Writ of Garnishment has been issued, naming you as garnishee. You are required to answer this writ in writing, under oath, and file an answer with the Court Clerk within ten (10) business days after service on you. If you fail to file an answer, you may be ordered to appear in person to answer the Writ, and a default judgment may be entered against you. If a default judgment is entered against you, you may be ordered to pay the full amount shown of this Writ, plus costs and attorney fees.

This summons is not a request to send money to the court. Do not release funds subject to the garnishment unless the court orders you to do so. If you have been properly named a garnishee in this action, upon receipt of this Writ, you should IMEDIATELY WITHHOLD NONEXEMPT EARNINGS from the judgment debtor's paycheck pending receipt of an Order of Continuing Lien.

CASA GRANDE JUSTICE COURT

INSTRUCTIONS TO GARNISHEE (EARNINGS)

A.R.S. § 12-1598.0 (C))

WARNING!

All parties to a garnishment are strongly urged to obtain legal advice from an attorney. Garnishment procedures are governed by Arizona law and are extremely complicated. All parties involved must follow these laws and procedures correctly. The Court may issue an order for monetary penalties against any party who does not proceed properly. If you, the garnishee, fail to meet your responsibilities in this garnishment preceding you run the risk that the Court may order you to pay the judgment creditor's attorney fees, costs and even the amount of money which the judgment debtor owed the judgment creditor. This can happen even if you do not owe the judgment debtor any wages.

You have been served with a Writ of Garnishment and Summons (Earnings) which names you as the garnishee and identifies the parties and the reason for the garnishment. The party who filed this court action (the "judgment creditor") is attempting to collect payment from a party named as the "judgment debtor". You are involved in this proceeding because the judgment creditor believes you owe the judgment debtor "earnings" such as wages, salary or compensation for services performed by the judgment debtor.

The judgment creditor should have served you with the following documents:

- ❖ Writ of Garnishment and Summons (Earnings) 2 copies
- ❖ Instructions to the Garnishee (Earnings) 2 copies
- ❖ Garnishee's Answer (Earnings) 4 copies
- Second Notice to Judgment Debtor of Garnishment (Earnings) 2 copies
- ❖ Request for Hearing on Garnishment (Earnings) 2 copies
- ❖ Nonexempt Earnings Statement (Not for Support of a Person) 4 copies
- ❖ Request for Hearing on Nonexempt Earnings Statement 4 copies
- One copy of the Judgment awarding money against the judgment debtor

CAUTION: Failure to file a Garnishee's Answer can result in an order being entered against you in the full amount of the debt owed by the judgment debtor to the judgment creditor. This can happen even if you do not know the judgment debtor or do not owe the judgment debtor any earnings.

STEP 1: Respond to the Writ of garnishment and summons within 10 business days

You must file a Garnishee's Answer with the Court Clerk within 10 business days after you receive the Writ of Garnishment and Summons.

A. If you do not and will not owe earnings to the judgment debtor within 10 business days after you receive the paperwork listed above, fill out a Garnishee's Answer (earnings) and file it with the Court Clerk. Even if you have never owed the judgment debtor any earnings you must respond to the Writ of Garnishment by filing a Garnishee's Answer.

After you file your Answer, you are entitled to be released from the garnishment if any of the following are true:

- You have never employed the judgment debtor and do not expect to employ the judgment debtor within the next 60 days.
- You do not owe the judgment debtor any earnings, regardless of whether the judgment debtor was ever your employee, and you do not expect to owe the judgment debtor any earnings within the next 60 days.
- You employed the judgment debtor in the past but do not currently owe the judgment debtor any earnings and do not expect to employ the judgment debtor again within the next 60 days.

Once you file you Garnishee's Answer with the Court Clerk and complete Step 2, you will not need to do anything further unless one of the other parties objects to your answer.

B. If you do owe or will owe earnings to the judgment debtor within 60 days. If you employ the judgment debtor or otherwise owe the judgment debtor earnings at the time you are served with the Writ of will owe the judgment debtor earnings within 60 days thereafter, you must now begin withholding nonexempt earnings from the judgment debtor's pay. You must complete and file a Garnishee's Answer with the Court Clerk within 10 business days after you receive the paperwork listed above.

STEP 2: Deliver copies of documents to the other parties

Also within 10 business days of receiving the Writ of Garnishment and Summons (Earnings), you must deliver or mail a copy of the Garnishee' Answer (completed) to the judgment creditor and the judgment debtor.

STEP 3: Complete the Nonexempt Earnings Statement and withhold the proper amount from the judgment debtor's pay
The Writ of Garnishment and Summons is an order from the court requiring you to immediately withhold nonexempt earnings from the judgment debtor.

Nonexempt Earnings Statement

Please make copies of this form before completing for use in future pay periods. For each pay period or each time your employee is paid, you must complete this form by checking the appropriate box(es) and filling in the blank(s) to determine the amount to withhold.

- Even if no moneys were earned by the judgment debtor in the pay period, you must still complete the Nonexempt Earnings Statement.
- You must deliver a copy of the Nonexempt Earnings Statement to the judgment debtor with their paycheck even if the amount withheld is $0.00.
- You may claim a $5.00 fee on each Nonexempt Earnings Statement that you complete.
- · Do not send any Nonexempt Earnings Statements to the court.
- · Keep the original Nonexempt Earnings Statement in your file.
- Deliver a copy of the Nonexempt Earnings Statement to the judgment creditor.
- Do not deliver any withheld earnings to the judgment creditor until you receive a signed Order of Continuing Lien.

PLEASE NOTE: You may be discharged from any liability on the garnishment if both of the following occur:

- No objections are filed on the Writ of Garnishment of your Garnishee's Answer
- The Order of Continuing Lien is not entered within 45 days after you filed your Answer.

If you are discharged, you must return any earnings you have withheld to the judgment debtor.

STEP 4: Await receipt of the Order of Continuing Lien, then pay the judgment creditor

Do not pay the judgment debtor's nonexempt earnings to the judgment creditor until you receive the Order of Continuing Lien signed by the court. Once you receive the Order, send the judgment creditor any nonexempt earnings you have withheld from the judgment debtor. For every pay period in which the Order of Continuing Lien is in effect, you must:

Complete a Nonexempt Earning Statement

Withhold the nonexempt earnings from the judgment debtor

- · Pay the nonexempt earnings you withheld to the judgment creditor
- Deliver a copy of the completed Nonexempt Earnings Statement and a blank Request for Hearing form to the judgment debtor
- Deliver a copy of the completed Nonexempt Earnings Statement to the judgment creditor
- · Keep the original Nonexempt Earnings Statement for your files
- Do not send any Nonexempt Earnings Statements to the court

Notice: Deadlines apply to this process. See ARS § 12-1598.13(B) & (C) for more information.

ADDITONAL INFORMATION

If the judgment debtor or judgment creditor objects to the Garnishment, the Garnishee's Answer or Nonexempt Earning Statement

The judgment debtor may file an objection and request a hearing on the Writ of Garnishment, your Garnishee's Answer or any Nonexempt Earnings Statement. The judgment creditor or the judgment debtor may file an objection and request a hearing if you fail to provide them with the appropriate Nonexempt Earnings Statement or if you fail to pay nonexempt earnings to the judgment creditor when due. Parties have 10 business days after they receive a Garnishee's Answer or Nonexempt earnings Statement to file a request for Hearing and state their objections, unless good cause is shown for filing their objections later (see ARRS § 12-1598.07).

If you receive more than one garnishment, or a garnishment and a wage assignment for the same judgment debtor's earnings. ARS § 12-1598.14 establishes the priority of payments you must honor if you receive more than one writ of garnishment and/or wage assignment against the same person's earnings. Usually, the first one you receive is entitled to be paid first. Special rules may apply to debts owed for child support, spousal maintenance and unpaid taxes which may give them priority regardless of when they were received. You should consult an attorney to determine which judgment creditor to pay first in the case of multiple garnishments against the same judgment debtor.

- No objections are filed on the Writ of Garnishment of your Garnishee's Answer
- The Order of Continuing Lien is not entered within 45 days after you filed your Answer.

If you are discharged, you must return any earnings you have withheld to the judgment debtor.

STEP 4: Await receipt of the Order of Continuing Lien, then pay the judgment creditor

Do not pay the judgment debtor's nonexempt earnings to the judgment creditor until you receive the Order of Continuing Lien signed by the court. Once you receive the Order, send the judgment creditor any nonexempt earnings you have withheld from the judgment debtor. For every pay period in which the Order of Continuing Lien is in effect, you must:

Complete a Nonexempt Earning Statement

Withhold the nonexempt earnings from the judgment debtor

- Pay the nonexempt earnings you withheld to the judgment creditor
- Deliver a copy of the completed Nonexempt Earnings Statement and a blank Request for Hearing form to the judgment debtor
- Deliver a copy of the completed Nonexempt Earnings Statement to the judgment creditor
- Keep the original Nonexempt Earnings Statement for your files
- Do not send any Nonexempt Earnings Statements to the court

Notice: Deadlines apply to this process. See ARS § 12-1598.13(B) & (C) for more information.

ADDITONAL INFORMATION

If the judgment debtor or judgment creditor objects to the Garnishment, the Garnishee's Answer or Nonexempt Earning Statement

The judgment debtor may file an objection and request a hearing on the Writ of Garnishment, your Garnishee's Answer or any Nonexempt Earnings Statement. The judgment creditor or the judgment debtor may file an objection and request a hearing if you fail to provide them with the appropriate Nonexempt Earnings Statement or if you fail to pay nonexempt earnings to the judgment creditor when due. Parties have 10 business days after they receive a Garnishee's Answer or Nonexempt earnings Statement to file a request for Hearing and state their objections, unless good cause is shown for filing their objections later (see ARRS § 12-1598.07).

If you receive more than one garnishment, or a garnishment and a wage assignment for the same judgment debtor's earnings. ARS § 12-1598.14 establishes the priority of payments you must honor if you receive more than one writ of garnishment and/or wage assignment against the same person's earnings. Usually, the first one you receive is entitled to be paid first. Special rules may apply to debts owed for child support, spousal maintenance and unpaid taxes which may give them priority regardless of when they were received. You should consult an attorney to determine which judgment creditor to pay first in the case of multiple garnishments against the same judgment debtor.

SECOND NOTICE TO JUDGMENT DEBTOR OF GARNISHMENT (EARNINGS)

AVISO

El Tribunal ha ordenado que su empleador tome un parte de su sueldo y que pague a su acreedor hasta terminado el proceso en contra suya y este pagada law deuda. En connformidad con la ley, su acreedo tiene derecho a "solo una parte" de su salario. Esta noticia explica su derechos. Ud, puedo obtener una traduccion espanol del Tribunal.

NOTICE

This is your second notice that a Writ of Garnishment has been issued to the garnishee named above. The Writ is a court order that requires garnishee to take part of the money owed to you and pay it to the judgment creditor. This will happen with every paycheck until the judgment is paid or the Court orders garnishee to stop.

The garnishee will withhold only part, if any, of each paycheck depending on how much you earn. The rest must be paid to you. On each payday, you will get a Nonexempt Earnings Statement that shows how much can be taken out, which is set by state and federal law. A comprehensive listing of exemptions is available from the website for the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Arizona, http://www.azb.usbourts.gov/Documents/ariona_exemptions.pdf.

If you do not agree, you can ask for a hearing for any of the reasons listed on the Request for Haring (Earnings) form that accompanies this Notice. To request a hearing, complete the Request for Hearing (Earnings) form and deliver it to the Clerk of Court within ten (10) business days of the date you received the Garnishee's Answer. At the same time, you must mail or deliver a copy of the completed Request for Hearing (Earnings) form to the judgment creditor and the garnishee at the addresses provided at the top of this document. You may be required to pay a fee for the hearing or request a waiver for the fee.

If you ask for a hearing it will be held no later than ten (ten) business days after your request is received by the Court. The Court will notify you and the other parties of the time and date of the hearing. You may attend the hearing with or without an attorney. Even if you do not request a hearing at this time, if you think that the garnishee is taking too much money out of your pay pursuant to this garnishment at some time in the future, you can ask for a hearing at that time.

WARNING: If you want a hearing, the Court must receive your completed Request for Hearing on Garnishment (Earnings) form within ten (10) business days after you receive the Garnishee's Answer. If you do not file the hearing request on time, you will not get a hearing unless the Court determines that there is a very good reason why you are late.

NOTICE

This is your second notice that a Writ of Garnishment has been issued to the garnishee named above. The Writ is a court order that requires garnishee to take part of the money owed to you and pay it to the judgment creditor. This will happen with every paycheck until the judgment is paid or the Court orders garnishee to stop.

The garnishee will withhold only part, if any, of each paycheck depending on how much you earn. The rest must be paid to you. If you do not agree, you can ask for a hearing for any of the reasons listed on the Request for Haring (Earnings) form that accompanies this Notice. To request a hearing, complete the Request for Hearing (Earnings) form and deliver it to the Clerk of Court within ten (10) business days of the date you received the Garnishee's Answer. At the same time, you must mail or deliver a copy of the completed Request for Hearing (Earnings) form to the judgment creditor and the garnishee at the addresses provided at the top of this document. You may be required to pay a fee for the hearing or request a waiver for the fee.

If you ask for a hearing it will be held no later than ten (ten) business days after your request is received by the Court. The Court will notify you and the other parties of the time and date of the hearing. You may attend the hearing with or without an attorney. Even if you do not request a hearing at this time, if you think that the garnishee is taking too much money out of your pay pursuant to this garnishment at some time in the future, you can ask for a hearing at that time.

WARNING: If you want a hearing, the Court must receive your completed Request for Hearing on Garnishment (Earnings) form within ten (10) business days after you receive the Garnishee's Answer. If you do not file the hearing request on time, you will not get a hearing unless the Court determines that there is a very good reason why you are late.
