Articles of Incorporation
Of
Domestic Violence Statute Matcher

Pursuant to the provision of the Nonprofit Corporation Act of this state (Arizona), the undersigned incorporators hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE 1 – NAME OF BUSINESS

The name of this non-profit corporation shall be Domestic Violence Statute Matcher, hereinafter referred to as the “Corporation.”

ARTICLE 2 – PLACE OF BUSINESS

The name and address of the registered agent and registered office of this Corporation is Pedro Rafael Tula del Moral Testai, 899 E. Doral Ct., Gilbert, AZ 85297.

ARTICLE 3 – PURPOSE

This Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes as specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future tax code. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this Corporation shall not, except to the insubstantial degree, engage in any activities, or exercise any powers not in furtherance of section 501(c)(3) purposes.

The purpose of this Corporation is:

1. To equip direct service providers, victims, and survivors of domestic violence with key knowledge and tools to apply criminal statutes, boosting legal empowerment, particularly for those without access to legal representation.
2. To provide education, free or low-cost AI tools, and law enforcement advice to significantly improve the chances of achieving justice for every domestic violence victim.
3. To develop and distribute an AI-powered Statute Matcher app that enables victims and advocates to identify relevant criminal statute codes related to specific instances of domestic violence, enhancing the efficiency and effectiveness of legal advocacy.
4. To conduct training programs for domestic violence advocates and service providers, focusing on the use of artificial intelligence to streamline operations and on educating victims about criminal statutes, their rights, and the legal system.

5. To collaborate with organizations involved in domestic violence and family law to integrate AI tools and technologies, supporting the broader ecosystem of legal advocacy for domestic violence victims.
6. Guiding victims of domestic violence who are poor, distressed, or underprivileged to public-interest law firms within their area to enhance their access to legal services.
7. To create and share educational social media content for domestic violence victims about legal rights, statute identification, and using AI tools and legal services, aiming to empower them in navigating the legal system.
8. Aid and assist other organizations, nonprofits, corporations, with implementation of AI to their systems for free or below market costs.
9. Offering free online courses and podcasts on domestic violence statute matching.
10. Conducting public discussion groups, forums, panels, lectures, and workshops.
11. To offer personalized Bibles upon request, engraved with the recipient's name, as a symbol of hope and strength for those who find comfort and support in their faith during their journey towards justice and healing.
12. To identify and meet social needs in the community, especially ones not efficiently served by any other government or private agency.
13. To support or create essential educational programs aimed at preventing cases of domestic violence from being overlooked or neglected, ensuring men, women, and children receive the help and justice they need.
14. To affiliate with necessary agencies or organizations to assist with/or obtain funding for the above purposes.
15. To engage in local fundraising activities as deemed appropriate and necessary by the Board of Directors.
16. To maintain a working relationship with social service agencies and the criminal justice system.
17. To develop a social service network by coordinating with services available throughout Maricopa County.
18. To develop a legal advocacy system to enable victims of domestic violence to access the criminal justice system and civil systems.
19. To conduct all other lawful acts or activities, as may be determined from time to time, for which corporation may be incorporated under Title 10, Chapter 3, A.R.S. as amended.

ARTICLE 4 – NO MEMBERSHIP

The Corporation shall have no members. Any action which would require a vote of members shall require only a vote of the Board of Directors, and no meeting or vote of members shall be required for any purpose, in accordance with the laws of the State of Arizona and the Corporation's Bylaws.

ARTICLE 5 – EXEMPT ORGANIZATION

At all times the following shall operate as conditions restricting the operations and activities of the Corporation:

1. No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purpose set forth in Article 3 hereof. The property of this Corporation is irrevocably dedicated to the Corporation and no part of the net income or assets of this Corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer, or member thereof, or to the benefit of any private individual.
2. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall constitute the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or any initiative or referendum before the public, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.
3. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future tax code, or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future tax code.

ARTICLE 6 – BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The organization's business activities will be overseen by a Board of Directors consisting of no fewer than four (4) and no more than fourteen (14) members. The Board shall elect a President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer, who are empowered to execute all official legal documents for the Corporation. Additional officers may be appointed as deemed necessary by the Board or as outlined in the Bylaws. The roles and powers of the Directors and officers are specified in these Articles, the Bylaws, and applicable laws. Officers, elected from among the current Board members, will be chosen during the annual Board meeting. This meeting will occur at the Corporation's main office, an agreed-upon location, or online via video call, as scheduled in the Bylaws or otherwise determined by the Board.

ARTICLE 7 – STATUTORY AGENT

Pedro Rafael Tula del Moral Testai is hereby appointed the statutory agent for the organization to accept and acknowledge service and upon whom may be served all necessary process or processes in any action, suit, or proceedings that may be brought against the organization in any of the courts of the State of Arizona and for all purposes required by law. The physical street address of the Statutory Agent in Arizona is:

899 E. Doral Ct., Gilbert, Arizona 85297.

The Board of Directors of this Corporation may revoke this appointment of agent at any time and shall have the power to fill any vacancy in such position.

ARTICLE 8 – AMENDMENTS

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended by a two thirds vote of members of the organization then entitled to vote who are present either in person or by absentee ballot at any special meeting or regular board meeting, provided that notice of the proposed amendment has been given at least ten (10) days prior to said meeting by mailing such to the last known physical or electronic address of such Directors who are then in good standing and entitled to vote. These Articles of Incorporation may be otherwise amended as provided by the laws of the State of Arizona, except they shall not be amended so as to change the Corporation from a non-profit corporation dedicated to the purposes above stated and qualified for exemption under the above cited Internal Revenue laws and regulations and the analogous laws of the State of Arizona.

ARTICLE 9 – BYLAWS

The Bylaws of the Corporation may be adopted, amended or rescinded by two thirds vote of the full Board of Directors of the Corporation then entitled to vote who are present either in person or by absentee ballot, at any duly called and held annual meeting, special meeting or regular board meeting, provided that notice of the proposed adoption, amendment or rescission has been given at least ten (10) days prior to said meeting by mailing such notice to the last known physical or electronic mail address of such Directors who are then in good standing and entitled to vote.

ARTICLE 10 – PERSONAL LIABILITY

No member, officer, or director of this Corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of this Corporation of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property of the members, officers, or directors be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this Corporation.

ARTICLE 11 – INDEMNIFICATION

The organization shall indemnify any past or present director, officer, committee member, employee, or agent against expenses, including without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgements, fines and amounts incurred while acting within the scope of his or her authority as a director, officer, committee member, employee or agent of the Corporation; provided that the Board of Directors shall determine in good faith that such did not act, fail to act, or refuse to act, willfully or with gross negligence or with fraudulent or criminal intent with regard to the matters involved in this action.

ARTICLE 12 – DURATION/DISSOLUTION

The duration of the corporate existence shall be perpetual until dissolution.

Upon dissolution or final liquidation of the Corporation, after paying or making provision for the payment of all lawful debts and liabilities of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of competent jurisdiction of the country in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purpose.

The undersigned incorporator hereby declares under penalty of perjury that the statements made in the foregoing Articles of Incorporation are true.
